

GOHS observed the 76th Republic Day

Green Orchid Housing Society (GOHS) observed the 76th Republic Day of the country by honouring the adoption of the Constitution of India with patriotism at its apartment campus in Radhanagar, Guwahati. Shri Mr. B.N. Jha, President GOHS unfurled the national flag amidst the singing of the national anthem by members. Shri Jha in his speech thanked the members for their contribution to national building and encouraged them to keep up the good work. While addressing the gathering at the apartment, some of the members in their speech paid glorious tribute to the architect of the Constitution of India, legendary leaders and freedom fighters. The celebration featured an art competition among the children of members, adding a creative and festive touch to the occasion.

